EVERY PASTOR SHOULD BE INTERESTED IN THIS BOOK

Many successful Pastors are advising their members to purchase a copy of our little devotional book, "GOD'S MINUTE," and some of them keep a quantity on hand to give a copy to every new family joining the church who will promise to use it in the family's daily devotions. They find that it increases the attendance at the church prayer meetings and also at the preaching services, and it causes added interest in the financial enterprises of the church.

"GOD'S MINUTE"

A book of 366 daily prayers, arranged in calendar form, a prayer to a page, with appropriate verses of Scripture at the top of the page.

Notwithstanding the fact that the book is printed on thin fine paper, consists of 384 pages, and is durably bound in cloth, the price is only 60 cents per copy.

Then we have it bound in Leatherette, gold top, head bands, and silk marker, stamped in gold, $1.00 per copy.

An Art Leather edition, which is a perfect gem of the binder's work, with an embossed design made especially for the book, with head bands, silk marker, each copy boxed. A sumptuous edition. Price, $1.50 per copy.

Any of these may be obtained from your Denominational Book Store, or from the publishers.

This Record affords space for the recording of 40 church officers, 660 members, 5940 pastoral calls directly opposite; 40 communion seasons, 120 baptisms, 80 marriages, 100 funerals, 260 sermons, 60 addresses, 160 new members, besides ten other departments.

Price, 75 Cents, Net.

WHAT PASTORS SAY OF IT.

"Very complete and satisfactory. Just what every pastor needs."

REV. J. R. MILLER, D. D.

"Saves time, saves strength, saves membership."

REV. RUSSELL H. CONWELL, D. D.

"Your Pastor's Record is compact, convenient and complete."

REV. M. RHODES, D. D.

"A most complete multum in parvo Pastoral Record."

REV. J. G. BUTLER, D. D.

"I want to heartily commend your 'Pastor's Pocket Record.' I have never seen anything better, and I shall urge my friends everywhere to use it."

REV. J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, D. D.

"It's the best book I have seen. It is so simple and compact that the keeping of the records is not a burden."

REV. ALLEN FORT, D. D.

PREFACE.

This book is sent out to supply a want felt by ministers of every denomination. To most pastors each volume will afford sufficient space to record the work of about two years. When full, the record may, at any time, be continued in another volume, thus enabling a minister to preserve a condensed record of his entire ministerial career.

The various departments explain themselves, and it only remains for me to offer a few

SUGGESTIONS.

Arrange names of "members" and those iucluded under head of "clerical calls," alphabetically, with surname written first—e. g., Washington, George. There is space sufficient for recording the names of 714 members, and where circumstances will allow after B. and S., leave at least 15 lines. After O. F. K. L. M. and W., at least 10 lines. After all other letters, at least 5 lines.

In recording date of "Calls," place the year at the head of columns, and designate date by figures—e. g., 9, 26 meaning ninth month, twenty-sixth.

"Sermons Preached."—Designate written or extempore sermons by the initial letter. The record of any sermon, previously preached, may be readily found by tracing rapidly the column designated "Book." "Prayer-meeting Lectures," and like discourses may be recorded regularly among the sermons, or the last six or eight pages of the department of sermons, Preached, may be set apart for each record, as may be preferred.

"New Members."—This department is intended to afford a complete record of names of all persons received into the church, so that a minister may know at the close of his ministerial career, not only the number, but the names of all persons whom he has received into the church.

"Cash Received and Paid Out" is designated for the larger receipts and disbursements.

"Journal of Prominent Events" will, when properly kept, afford the dates of settlement in new field of labor, laying of corner-stone or consecration of church, seasons of special religious interest, etc.

The "Tabular Summary" will exhibit a resumé of work, which may be recorded quarterly, semi-annually or annually, as each may elect.

The Pastor's Influence on Lives

Every sympathetic pastor has a wonderful opportunity to be a real help to the boys and girls, and the young men and young women, in his parish. A keenly observant minister looking into the features of the folks who make up his congregation can tell just the kind of information that they need.

One of the greatest of American Presidents said to a lad, the son of a member of his Cabinet,—"You ought to get a copy of 'What a Young Man Ought to Know,' by Dr. Sylvanus Stall." The boy told his father about this book, and his father in turn told the pastor of the church that he attended. The pastor examined the book and recommended it.

Another busy pastor in a great Western city makes it his business to recommend

Stall's Self and Sex Series

They are the only books that present the entire subject from the Biblical standpoint. More than three million copies are in the homes of people in the English speaking world.

The pastor will forever endear himself, not only to the young people who he benefits by telling of these books with their priceless messages, but to their parents. There is a book for each of the four periods in the lives of both men and women. Descriptive catalogues will be sent you upon application, or you will find copies in your Denominational Book Store and in every book shop selling books in the English speaking world.

What Eminent Ministers say of Dr. Stall's Pure Books on Avoided Subjects.

REV. CHARLES M. SHELDON.

"I believe the book will do great good, and I hope its message may be used for the bettering of the homes of the world."

THEODORE L. CUYLER, D. D.

"Your admirable little book, 'What a Young Boy Ought to Know,' ought to be in every home where there is a boy."

FRANCIS E. CLARK, D. D.

"Written reverently, but very plainly. It will save a multitude of young men from evils unspeakable."

THE RIGHT REV. WILLIAM N. McVICKAR, D. D.

"I heartily endorse and recommend 'What a Young Man Ought to Know.' I believe that it strikes at the very root of matters, and ought to be instrumental for much good."

CHARLES L. THOMPSON, D. D.

"It is indeed what boys ought to know—the failure to know which has been the cause of many sorrows and pains and penalties. Why was not this book written centuries ago?"

JOSIAH STRONG, D. D.

"Your book is most reverent and will inspire reverence. I hope many parents will have the wisdom to make use of it."

A Book That Will Enable You to Preach Red-blooded Sermons to Young Men

It is a difficult problem for preachers who desire to draw young men to the church services to obtain material for their sermons that will be attractive and helpful to young men.

Touchstones of Success

is the book from which you can draw material that will enable you not only to interest young men, but to vastly benefit them. One hundred and sixty different successful men, representing sixty different professions, tell over their own signatures the salient points in their career.

One of them was deaf when a young man, and he became a world renowned engineer. Another was apparently a helpless bed-ridden invalid, and he rounded his career in a successful way. Another had tuberculosis, and he is now known the world over.

Every one of these men put character above mere money grubbing.

There is material enough in this book for at least 50 sermons. You can get life illustrations—not of the mushy kind, but of the living, vital, virile type.

For $1.25 you can obtain this book at your Denominational House, or from the Publishers,

A BOOK EVERY PASTOR SHOULD OWN

Marvels of Our Bodily Dwelling

By MRS. MARY WOOD-ALLEN, M. D.

Author of "What a Young Girl Ought to Know," etc.

This is a wonder-tale about our marvelous bod which is not only a dwelling, but a worksho wherein are done phenomenal things— a laborato where many remarkable processes are carried o a manufactory where worn-out materials are d stroyed and new substances created; and a stru ture embodying marvels of mechanism and ski

All these wonders are told in a charming w by a very gifted author, who knew that study a obedience of the laws of physiology will insu that sound body which is the beautiful dwelli place of a sound mind.

"There is not a dry chapter in the book, and indeed there little danger of its not being read when once one begins it. Christian Endeavor World, Boston, Mass.

"Every family will save money and gain health by putting readable and so valuable a book within reach of its members. Watchman-Examiner, New York City.

"The book is worth its weight in gold to everybody who r it, if they will use the lessons taught and govern themselves acc ingly."—Herald of Gospel Liberty, Dayton, O.
